Building Permits

The NZ Building Act came in to force on 1 July 1992. From that date, the issue of building permits ceased and they were replaced with building consents. Under the old permit system there was no requirement for Council to keep or provide records of building work. While Council generally holds records of permits issued, often little or no information is available regarding results of building inspections. Should an evaluation of the building be required, an independent qualified person should be consulted.

Date	Permit Number	Subject	Notes

No Environmental Health or Licence information has been found for this property.

Air Shed

This property sits within a controlled Air Shed.

Air Shed	Air Shed Regulations
Richmond Air Shed	After a house in Richmond changes ownership, an existing non-compliant wood burner cannot be used. It may be replaced with either a clean heat system or an approved clean air wood burner. New houses, or existing houses without an existing wood burner or open fire, can only install clean heat systems - no wood burners at all.

Hazardous Activities and Industries List (HAIL)

Tasman District Council monitors contaminated sites. This property has a record of the following contamination risks. If the site or any adjacent site has been used for industrial, horticultural or agricultural purposes in the past, we suggest you make further enquiries.

Valuation Assessment	LIM Statement
1959027300	This site has been identified as being subject to the Resource Management (National Environmental Standard for Assessing and Managing Contaminants in Soil to Protect Human Health) Regulations 2011. This property is in a mapped historic orchard area known as Giblin's Orchard and no sampling or testing has been carried out to date. Any future change of use, substantial earthworks or subdivision might require a site investigation report pursuant to the regulations. Please note this report may result in the need for resource consent under these regulations.

Wetlands

Council has no record of wetlands on this property.

Pest Inspection History

The Tasman-Nelson region has a Regional Pest Management Strategy for the control of declared pest plants, animals and organisms. The responsibility for the control of pests lies with the land occupier or owner. No pests have been recorded on this property.

Significant Native Habitats

Council has been compiling biodiversity reports (also called Ecological Property Reports or reports on Significant Native Habitats) for the past eight years and where these exist they are available. However, no report has been lodged on this property.
